

The image shows a collection of modern office accessories. In the foreground, there is a light blue, cylindrical trash can with a wide, flared top. Behind it, on a dark grey desk, are two desk organizers. One is light blue and the other is white, both featuring a similar flared top design. The desk is set on a wooden floor with a light-colored, herringbone pattern. The background shows a dark grey metal frame, likely part of a desk or shelving unit.
